Vocational Skills Training Request for Proposals for Fiscal Year 2019

Introduction
Philadelphia Works is a non-profit organization that manages the public workforce system for the city and county of Philadelphia. Philadelphia Works’ mission is to connect businesses and employers to a skilled workforce and help individuals develop the skills needed to thrive in the workplace.

Purpose
Philadelphia Works releases this Request for Proposal (RFP) to entities interested in providing Vocational Skills Training services to program participants served through the public workforce system.

Through this RFP, Philadelphia Works seeks to go beyond its traditional investments by increasing the availability and diversity of training programs. Specifically, this RFP seeks to procure Vocational Skills Training programs for Employment Advancement and Retention Network (EARN) and Workforce Innovation and Opportunities Act (WIOA) program participants which lead to industry recognized credentials and provide the specific job skills required to qualify for employment in high priority occupations in Philadelphia.

Additionally, to help address the ever-present literacy challenges within the workforce system, Philadelphia Works seeks Vocational Skills Training programs that can deliver training and contextualized literacy services to individuals up to two grades below typical educational entrance requirements for the field of study.

Contextualized literacy, in this context, refers to an approach to teaching and learning that integrates developmental, adult basic education and/or English as a Second Language (ESL) instruction with vocational training. The goal of contextualized literacy is to help training participants with academic skills that are lower than program entrance requirements to successfully attain a recognized credential through vocational training. Contextualized literacy embeds basic skills instruction into technical content instruction by drawing from content rooted in every day or/and workforce activities.

Vocational training with embedded contextualized literacy instruction must include the following elements:

- A clear selection and enrollment process that accepts participants one to two grade levels below the typical entrance requirements
- Seamless integration of literacy instructional components with vocational instruction and activities
- Staff assigned to support and coordinate contextualized literacy components
- Providers are encouraged to partner with qualified agencies that have the capacity to deliver literacy instruction within a Vocational Skills Training environment
Vocational Skills Training Request for Proposals for Fiscal Year 2019

Who is Eligible to Apply
Philadelphia Works intends to award contracts to multiple respondents. For-profit and non-profit organizations with a demonstrated track record in providing training services that lead to an industry recognized credential are encouraged to apply. Specifically, Philadelphia Works seeks providers that also have served participants who may have had challenges to employment.

The RFP is open to both current Philadelphia Works contractors as well as qualified organizations that have not previously contracted with Philadelphia Works. Respondents may submit proposals for multiple training programs, but each program must be submitted separately for consideration. Agencies that submit combined proposals will be required to resubmit before consideration. This RFP is intended to provide funding for established training programs and will not provide start-up funding.

Proposals that culminate in only basic certifications or certificates of completion will be considered non-responsive and will not be reviewed. Examples are: ServSafe®, OSHA, MOS, or Customer Service/Retail related credentials. Questions regarding general certifications should be submitted to vstraining@philaworks.org.

Availability and Awarding of Funding
Funding for this project is contingent upon the availability of funds. The anticipated length of the contract period is 12 months unless otherwise extended at the discretion of Philadelphia Works. Philadelphia Works seeks to fund multiple cohorts throughout the program year. Philadelphia Works also seeks competitive budgets where costs associated with integrated contextualized literacy, training, and credentialing are included. Philadelphia Works reserves the right to negotiate the costs of all training programs upon award selection. The payment structure for all contracts will be cost reimbursement.

Submission Requirements
Submissions will be accepted and proposals will be reviewed on a rolling basis, contingent upon the availability of funds. All submissions must speak to and define the implementation of each of three (3) core elements – Program Design, Training Curriculum, and Learning Environment.

Responding to the RFP
Applicants must follow the procedures outlined in this RFP. Applicants must answer all the appropriate questions in the Program Narrative section of this RFP and provide all the required attachments.

Format of Response
One electronic copy of your proposal with all required attachments must be submitted to vstraining@philaworks.org. For ease of receipt and review, please combine documents into one continuous PDF. Proposals received in an incorrect format will need to be resubmitted before consideration. A Word Document version of the proposal may be requested later if a contract is awarded. Incomplete, faxed, or hard copy proposals will not be accepted. Submissions that do not follow the required format may not be reviewed. Please refer to the Submission Checklist to ensure the package is complete prior to submission.

Where to Submit Questions
All questions regarding development and submission of this RFP should be submitted to vstraining@philaworks.org. Answers to questions will be posted on-line at www.philaworks.org.

Evaluation of Submissions

Completeness
Submissions will be initially reviewed to verify that they are complete and consistent with the guidelines set forth in this RFP. If any section of your response is missing or illegible it will be considered non-responsive and will not be reviewed.

Fiscal Review
Submissions will be reviewed on the proposed budget for fiscal soundness. Agencies must be considered either “low-risk” or “medium-risk” on the fiscal review to be considered for funding. Agencies that are deemed to be “high-risk” may not be considered for contract award. Additional financial documentation may be required dependent upon the final decision of Philadelphia Works.

Programmatic Review
Concurrent with the fiscal review, all submissions will be evaluated based on the quality of the services being provided as demonstrated through the narrative section of this RFP. All training curriculum must be approved by the Department of Health and Human Services (DHS) before being delivered. The elements identified in the RFP are not all-inclusive, therefore other aspects of the submissions and budgets may be reviewed during the selection process.

Contextualized literacy must not only be designed to directly develop the skills and knowledge needed to perform specific functions in the workplace, but to also upskill program participants in basic reading and math. Curriculum should be specific in its description of the skills training, with details of the certification or credential achieved, and reflect how the upskilling, with use of contextualized literacy materials, will be embedded. To demonstrate learning, it is expected that all program participants will be post-tested to demonstrate the learning of the basic literacy skills. The attainment of a vocational-industry recognized certification will demonstrate that the participant has learned the knowledge and skills required to perform satisfactorily on the job.

Selected respondents will be required to supply evidence of appropriate licenses, insurance, relevant internal procedures, etc., prior to contract execution. The list of required documentation will be provided by Philadelphia Works upon selection through the RFP process.

Philadelphia Works, in soliciting Request for Proposals, shall not discriminate against any person or organization submitting a response pursuant to this Request for Proposal because of race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, age, disability, ethnic group, national origin, or other basis prohibited by law.
